

FREE HARVILLE HENDRIX PRESENTATION IN SACRAMENTO

Harville Hendrix, PhD, best selling author of the ground breaking book, Getting the Love that You Want is presenting his new relationship education program at a FREE seminar. Hendrix is appearing Tuesday, January 20th, from 6:30 - 9:00 PM, at the First United Methodist Church, 2100 J Street, Sacramento. This event is being held in support of local community healthy marriage education organizations which foster healthy relationships and families.

Oprah has chosen Hendrix as her favorite relationship therapist, and selected him to be included in her feature called, "Top 20 Moments" when she celebrated 20 years of her TV show. During this show, Oprah talks about her introduction to Harville and his Imago Relationship Therapy, and how it has changed her view of relationships.

Hendrix's appearance is part of a statewide speaking tour to introduce his new DVD delivered relationship course, "Couplehood as a Spiritual Path." Two other featured speakers are: Eric Garcia from the movie, Fireproof, and Tracie Donahue, director of the award winning movie, The Secrets to Love. Free materials from all three programs will be available before and after the presentations.

Free parking is located behind the church at 22nd & J Street and behind an adjacent state building at 21st and K Street, as well as next to the Wells Fargo Bank building across the street at 21st and K.

Five Sacramento area healthy marriage organizations are sponsoring this event. These include Sacramento, El Dorado and Yuba-Sutter Counties, the United Methodist Churches, and the Episcopal Churches.
